

Violetta

A decorative calligraphic rendering of the word "Violetta" in a cursive script. The letters are formed with thick, black outlines. The word is embellished with various floral and vine-like motifs. A large, stylized leaf is positioned to the left of the 'V'. A thin, curved vine arches over the 'i' and 'o'. A small, five-petaled flower is placed above the 'e'. Another vine-like element extends from the right side of the word. A long, sweeping underline runs beneath the entire word, ending in a small hook.
